

PME 4352 Homework2

Due 11/26/21

1. Please show a possible technology enable the photolithography on a highly structured substrate surface, for example the substrate with a deep cavity as figure shown below. (No more than one page)

You need to search the information on website or any other resources. Please clearly describe where your materials from, and give the reference.

